

Prof. Dr. Vamık Volkan

Biography

Vamık D. Volkan (born in 1932 in Nicosia, Cyprus)

He has studied at Cypriot High School . He came to Turkey in 1956, graduated from Ankara University Faculty of Medicine.

He lectured for 45 years at the University of Virginia until 2002. He worked as a head physician of the university hospital for 18 years.

He did forty books work and more than 400 scientific papers published. He has carried out numerous research and field work about psychological conflicts and identity issues. He has been nominated for the Nobel Peace Prize because of his work on Psycho-political theories and and the problem of peace in many parts of the world.